

DOLTON PARISH COMMUNITY GRANTS SCHEME 2008/09

GUIDANCE NOTES AND CRITERIA

INTRODUCTION

DOLTON Parish Council is pleased to announce that it has provided a grant budget for 2008/09 to fund a Community Grants Scheme. The fund aims to assist in the development of local services and the quality of life for the local community. Varied projects can be supported, and eligible expenditure for the scheme can include the costs for new events, funding a new community based project, or purchase of equipment to enable a local organisation to develop.

Applications are invited from local voluntary, community and charitable groups or organisations within the Dolton Parish for grants of up to 50% of eligible costs of projects or equipment. The maximum grant available is £100. The applicant will be expected to match fund the grant financial or in kind resources.

The grants scheme compliments the Parish Councils vision, and assists with the delivery of its key priorities in its Local Plan.
